

I'm paying for a trek!

As a 501 (c) 3 organization, we strive to make our expeditions accessible for anyone who is interested. Although we work to offer competitive prices, we also seek to offer our staff competitive wages. Below is an overview of how your money is used in our organization. We have grants for schools and scholarships for individuals interested in our summer program.

...how is my money used?

Before your trek:

- § Gear Maintenance
- § Permits
- § Trip Planning
- § Staff Training
- § Vehicle Maintenance
- § Reservations

On your trek:

- ⊗ Staff
- ⊗ Occasional entrance fees, etc.
- ⊗ Supplies (leather, beads, brooms, paints, etc)
- ⊗ Propane, kerosene and gas
- ⊗ Gear (tents, stoves, etc)
- ⊗ Food

Post-trek:

- ~ Cleaning and washing of group gear
- ~ Vehicle Maintenance
- ~ Gear repair or replacement

As long as all trekkers are willing to help out in our community and take care of our gear, we can keep these costs low and bring more

Other costs...

- ⊕ Insurance
- ⊕ Marketing
- ⊕ Administration
- ⊕ Office Organization
- ⊕ Workers Comp.
- ⊕ Office and base camp upkeep
